Many years ago, I worked as a sales trainer in one of the major Banks telecommunications centers. Yes, that was the time when those centers were all across America. This has been outsourced and is now almost 100% offshore. This Bank had a massive software platform called How To. Kind of like Google on steroids. You could find anything you wanted from the system at the snap of your fingers. I thought about this when considering the concept of bet on yourself. We are all living in a rapidly shifting world. Many people are feeling the stress of their world being totally upside down. It is a shock to the system that what feels like almost overnight the world you knew became a Twilight Zone episode. And this is why it is so important to become self-reliant. Yet the major advantage is the fact that America is still the richest nation in the world and has the greatest selection of opportunity in the world. Any American can start a business, buy a business, create value for others and earn whatever they desire. To the scarcity driven victim mindset this is nonsense. In that mindset the world has a limited number of opportunities and resources. Abundance is impossible so the best thing to do is rely on others and exchange time for money. This will never produce financial independence and will assure the lifetime of dependency. On the other side of the mindset is that of abundance. The unlimited expansion of opportunity, creation and ideas. Helping others by adding value that creates profit. It starts with business. The obstacle is education and messaging that has been permeated by scarcity, dependency, security. That message has been about exchanging time for money, remaining unaware of talents and skills. Consistently accept less than the true value of your talent and skills.
