The smile that changed everything
With his trademark goal celebration and broad smile,
Ronaldinho joined Barça at the age of 23 💸 in the summer of 2003. The Brazilian was the catalyst for the return of the good times to FC Barcelona 💸 a fter a barren spell of and during his five seasons with the Club he won the league title twice an d 💸 the Champions
League before leaving for AC Milan in 2008.
Ronaldinho signed for Barça in 2003 from French club PSG where 💸 he had spent three successful seasons and had turned himself into one of the most promising young players in world 💸 football.
The Brazilian's arrival at
FC Barcelona sparked a new dawn with Frank Rijkaard as coach and in 20
05 the 💸 blaugranes
claimed the league championship for the first time in six seasons. The following campaign a Ronaldinho inspired Barça side 💸 scaled ever greater heights, not only retaining the league title but also claiming a second Champions League crown with a 💸 2-1 win over Arsenal in the final in Paris in May 2006. Unfortunately, inj ury plagued his final two seasons with 💸 the Club and after having scored 98
goals in 207 matches as a blaugrana, Ronaldinho left for Italy and AC 💸 Milan in the su mmer of 2003. After three years in Serie A, the striker spent the majority of the remainder 
8184; of his career playing
in his native Brazil with Fluminense being the final port of call befo re he finally hung 💸 up his boots.
