Liverpool have Jurgen Klopp to a new deal that keeps him at Anfield until 2026 with the German's wife, Ulla, playing a key role in their decision to remain in England.

Jurgen Klopp's has confessed that his wife's desire to remain in Liverpool was a major factor in his decision to extend his Anfield contract.

The German announced that he had penned a fresh deal that will keep him and his partner, Ulla Sandrock, in Merseyside until 2026. Originally Klopp was due to leave his role with the Reds in 2024 but talks have quickly been held and both parties are happy to remain working together for an extra two years.

Klopp moved to Liverpool in 2005 with Sandrock, whom he married in 2005. The pair met at Oktoberfest in Munich and the Reds boss joked that he was being a "good husband" by honouring his wife's desire to remain in the north west as he confirmed his news on social media.

He said on Liverpool's Twitter : "There's something to announce. Like last time some will like it, some will not like it too much. If you don't like it, stop watching now. I stay for another two years of and only me. No, all my coaches will as well, which is the most important actually. Why? Is now the question. Because Ulla wants to stay and as a good husband what are you doing when your wife wants to stay? You are staying."

Klopp went on to add: "The most important contract I signed in my life was the one with Ulla. And that's why it start again, because actually we sat at the kitchen table and Ulla said 'I can't see us leaving in 2024'. I said 'what?'. That's how it all started and when that started I thought 'let's have a think'.
When I thought about it it was clear that I needed to have one more really important conversation, th
