Neymar has completed a €86million transfer from Paris Saint-Germain to Al-Hilal, where he will come up against Cristiano Ronaldo in the new-look Saudi Pro League.

Neymar has become the latest star to move to Saudi Arabia and his Al-Hilal transfer will see him go head-to-head with Cristiano Ronaldo.

The Brazilian forward has joined the Saudi Pro League side in a €100million (£86.3m) deal that will see him earn €129m-a-year, which is around €2.5m per week. Neymar will join ex-Wolves midfielder Ruben Neves, former Chelsea defender Kalidou Koulibaly, ex-Lazio star Sergei Milinkovic-Savic and Brazilian compatriot Malcom at Al-Hilal.

He will also be reunited with Ronaldo, who became the first high-profile player to move to the Middle Eastern country when he signed for Al-Nassr after seeing his Manchester United contract cancelled in December. It will be the first time that Neymar and Ronaldo have played in the same domestic league since 2024, when the Brazil star left Barcelona for Paris Saint-Germain in a world-record €200m deal.

Playing for bitter rivals Barcelona and Real Madrid, the two flamboyant attackers developed quite the rivalry over four years in La Liga and in the Champions League since. While Ronaldo's main opponent over the years has undoubtedly been Lionel Messi, Neymar has also challenged his status as the sport's biggest star.

Ronaldo's side, Al-Nassr, got the better of Al-Hilal in the recent Arab Club Champions Cup final thanks to two goals from their Portuguese talisman. Al-Hilal will now be able to call upon Neymar when they next meet in the Saudi Pro League on November 30.

But while they will be on opposing sides once again, Neymar is on record expressing his admiration for Ronaldo. Asked in an interview with DAZN in September, he d
