<p&gt;Nicholas Walsh has always been around poker. From initially learning to play with his family right up until he joined 🛡 the poker society at u niversity, he s never been far from the game.</p&gt;
<p&qt;&lt;/p&qt;
<p&gt;While completing his course at the University of Brighton, &#128737; N ick spent much of his free time honing his poker skills
                                                                                                                                                     both locally in Bright on and online. Upon realizing 🛡 he could play the game professionally a s a job, Nick downloaded PokerStars, and quickly became absorbed by poker strate gy.</p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;After initially &#128737; focusing on cash games and Sit & Sit the early part of his playing career, Nick eventually transitioned into &#12873
7; Spin & Spin & doing the thing that had fascinated 🛡 him from an early age making a living from poker. What s more, he was having a lot of fun 🛡 doing it.&
It;/p>
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Streaming, naturally, was the next logical step. Nick felt that for suc h a popular game, poker was largely underrepresented 🛡 on Twitch. He wa nted to change that. He has streamed countless hours already on the platform, an d now streams on 🛡 the official PokerStars channel.</p&gt;
<p&gt;&lt;/p&gt;
<p&gt;Nick
                                      s personality and presence led to him commentating alongside James Hartigan and Joe Stapleton on poker events 🛡 such as the European Poke r Tour (EPT), the Spring Championship of Online Poker (SCOOP) and the prestigiou s Sunday Million.</p&gt;
<p&qt;&lt;/p&qt;
<p&gt;For him, &#128737; the best part of streaming is the friendships and o pportunities that come with developing an online community who all share &#12873 7; the same love for the game. In his new role on the PokerStars Twitch channel
, Nick hopes to inspire new 🛡 players to join the community and learn h ow to play the game that has become such a huge part of 🛡 his life.<

<p&qt;&lt;/p&qt;
<p&gt;Nick plays online poker exclusively at PokerStars, where he plays under the username
                                            Nicholas Walsh
                                                                                       .</p&qt;
